COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

2010-2011 Broker-in-Charge Annual Review (#2013)

This course will focus on the Commission's complaint and audit procedures, trust account procedures, fact situations drawn from actual disciplinary cases, and BIC requirements. All BICs must complete this course each full licensing period after being designated a BIC. (All BICs must also complete the NC Real Estate Update course)

2010-2011 NC Real Estate Update (#9911)

This year's mandatory Real Estate Update course will focus on the newly revised NCAR residential Offer to Purchase and Contract form, the new Good Faith Estimate and HUD-1 forms, a review of licensing and education rules, real estate agent safety and Commission rule changes.

It's Legal — But Is It Really OK? (#2834)

While it may be difficult to find stable ethical footing amidst the chaos of change, real estate professionals can choose to engage in responsible and morally desirable behavior; they can help people in need; and they can choose to do the right thing. This course points us in that direction through an interactive case study approach to solving dilemmas when the law says you can, but you wonder if you should.
